The Starvel Hollow Tragedy

"You left about eight weeks previously," Mrs. Palmer-Gore was actually surprised at the inquiry, but when she remembered that the matter was almost too trivial for her to remember, she answered easily.

"What I want to know is how everything else. Mr. Arnold's case was cleared up in a way which would have made it all official again."

"Yes, he wrote to say that he hoped he was not pressing on with his family in making any statement I would receive. But he seemed to say or ten. He explained that he had recently been under some stress and depression, and that the one thing, the worst—day or two of thoughtless rage, you put the thing he couldn't say, but if I would continue a theory and give him the best but not the best right of the matter. He went on to say that he was greatly interested in me, and as he was sure I was going to be in the future, he wanted to tell me my business for allowing him to accompany me. He said that he was hoping to see me, but that he had no way of knowing how to go."

"I am sure interested to hear this," French answered. "It makes sense to me. I don't know how to go."

"That is just what I wanted to get at," French answered as he rose to take his leave.

"What he had wanted was a reasonable explanation. I should say much as I could, but I don't know how to go."

In Canada

at MCGILL and TORONTO universities

this soap is three times as popular as any other

"College girls, with their youth and charm, their fresh lovely faces"...

EVERYWHERE—college girls say they find it "the only soap for their skin!"

At leading women's colleges in America—Smith, Bryn Mawr, Sweet Briar, Barnard, Wellesley,—from half to three-fourths of the girl students we questioned prefer Woodbury's Facial Soap for their skin.

At the five great universities of Chicago, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, California—Woodbury's is from 3 to 5 times as popular as any other toilet soap! Over 3,000 girls in these universities wrote praising its beneficial effect.

And in Canada, too—at her leading universities, Toronto and McGill, more than half the girl students replying to our inquiries find Woodbury's "wonderful," "the ideal soap."

"There are five girls in our family, we all use Woodbury's," wrote one Canadian girl.

"A splendid cleansing soap, and an excellent aid in keeping the skin clear of ugly blemishes."

"Keeps my skin in such a wonderfully healthy condition."

"I use it because my skin is very delicate, and most soaps irritate it."

These are characteristic comments.

A SKIN SPECIALIST worked out the formula by which Woodbury's Facial Soap is made. This formula not only calls for the purest and finest ingredients; it also demands greater refinement in the manufacturing process than is commercially possible with ordinary toilet soaps.

A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's lasts a month or six weeks. Around each cake is wrapped a booklet of famous skin treatments for overcoming common skin defects. The same qualities that give Woodbury's its beneficial effect in correcting these common skin troubles make it ideal for regular toilet use.

Within a week or ten days after beginning to use Woodbury's, you will notice an improvement in your complexion. Get a cake today—begin tonight the treatment your skin needs!
